In simple words, using the Feynman learning technique, explain how we came to conclude the existence of dark energy. Please explain what should we do next to come closer to elucidating its nature.

2017